4. Place the net onto the top ends of the net posts (Fig. F).

WHERE TO PLAY

Badminton can be played on nearly any flat surface, indoors or outdoors. Mark the boundaries with cones or chalk lines if desired.

LED BIRDIES

Each birdie has an on/off switch that turns on a color-changing LED. Please be sure to turn the LED off when not in use in order to preserve battery life.
RULES OF BADMINTON
Like tennis, one player serves and one player returns. The server hits the birdie (a.k.a. “shuttlecock”) over the net. The object is to get the birdie to land in bounds on the opponent’s side of the court. When this happens, the server has won the rally.

The server can also win a rally if the opponent makes a mistake, such as hitting the birdie into the net, under the net or out of bounds.

When the server wins a rally, he or she serves again. If the server loses a rally, the opponent gets to serve.

SCORING POINTS
Generally, whoever wins a rally gets a point. However, some badminton organizations maintain that only the person who served can earn a point. You should decide which rule to follow before play begins. The game goes to 21 points, and the winner must win by 2.

DOUBLES PLAY
In doubles play (2 players per side), either member of a team can hit the birdie. You do not have to take turns. However, teams can only hit the birdie one time. You cannot “pass” the birdie to your teammate.

DISASSEMBLY
Take down the Portable Badminton game in the reverse order you assembled it. Be sure to store all of the parts and equipment in the carry case for future use.

Please note: The included net measures approximately 116” x 11.5”, with a height of 60”. It is intended for recreation only, and is not designed for official tournament use.
